

VimpelCom is one of the world's largest integrated telecommunications services operators

To achieve our mission, we have instituted a decentralized model based on our fundamental belief that all our business is local. We have empowered our people to delight our customers locally, and we are achieving success through our local brands and expertise, while supporting our broader goals in each individual market.

For more information, visit our website www.vimpelcom.com

753m

population coverage

No7

mobile provider
in the world

220m

mobile customers